Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-18 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
3. As to claims 1 and 2, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art a liquid crystal display device comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically a plurality of dot areas, a light-transmitting metal oxide film laminated on the reflective conductive film so that the outer edge of the metal oxide film is in contact with the first substrate and wherein the outer edge of the metal oxide film transmits light from outside the first substrate while the reflective conductive film reflects light from the outside of the second substrate, in each of the dot areas.
4. As to claim 6, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art a liquid crystal display device comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically a light-transmitting metal oxide film laminated on the reflective conductive film so that the outer edge of the metal oxide film is in contact with the first substrate and a reflecting layer provided on the reflective conductive film, for reflecting blue component light.
5. As to claim 11, the prior arts of record do not anticipate or render obvious to one skilled in the art a liquid crystal display device comprising various elements as claimed, more specifically a light-transmitting metal oxide film laminated on the reflective conductive film so that the outer edge of the metal oxide film is in contact with the first substrate, the reflective conductive film and the metal oxide film forming a first electrode, a second electrode formed on the second substrate, wherein a display area comprises a collection of crossing regions of the first and second electrodes, the wiring connected to the first electrode and the wiring connected to the second electrode are present outside the display area, and at least one of the wirings comprises a metal oxide to eliminate the reflective conductive film.

6. US 2002/0171792 (Kubota) is not considered as prior art under 35 U.S.C 102 (e) since the filing date of Kubota is after the filing date of the instant application of February 05, 2002 and that the PCT priority document of Kubota was filed after November 29, 2000 and was filed in Japanese, not in English.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
